Contributions are not tax deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. By contributing, I certify that the following statements are true and accurate: This contribution is from my personal funds and not an account maintained by a corporation, labor union, or national bank. I am a U.S. Citizen or a lawfully admitted permanent resident. I am not a federal contractor. Contribution limits per election are $2,700 per individual per election and $5,400 per couple per election. If I individually give over 2,700, I attribute excess funds to the next election. This committee must use best efforts to obtain address, occupation, and employer information.
